Director's Notes

We all face personal traumas of one sort or another at various times in our lives. Many of us here tonight are coping with problems at this time - myself and my family included. The thing that sets the RTP Chorus apart from other groups is the deep feeling of friendship that is shared among us, year after year. This is not just a group of people who sing - this is an ensemble of friends who sing "and play" in harmony.

Everyone here has been such a source of strength and support for me personally this spring. I know that support also goes out to others.

I guess I just wanted you, the audience, to realize what truly great people are up here performing for you tonight. I also wanted them to know how much they are totally treasured.

Also, a big thanks to all of you for sharing the evening with us! These shows give us a valid excuse to tell our families as to why we are gone every Sunday evening....!

Bev Toon
